“ *Sylvia,
Sitting back thinking about my childhood memories. Thinking back to when our father made it a priority to be sure we were connected on many levels besides you just being my sister. Wishing I had one more moment to share my life and military stories with you. The most important thing is knowing I had an opportunity to connect with Jessica and send many messages full of love to you. Some day I will see you again. Rest easy as I know you are no longer suffering. Know that I love you and you will always have a special place in my heart. Tell our father hello. I can now speak to you with ease. Love you!
