“ I'm very sorry to hear of your loss. Though I may not have a memory of Tadesse, I know most certainly he is in God's memory, and wouldn't you agree that is the safest place for anyone to be? Especially in light of the promise that God gives us in his word at John 5:28, 29 where it says: Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs [God's memory] will hear his voice and come out." This is God's promise to us, from which we can gain much comfort. If you would like to learn more about God's promises feel free to email me at scottstone86@gmail.com

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
