

Takeisha Williams

October 6, 1982 - May 30, 2020

On Sunday, May 30, 2020, God suddenly called his angel, Takeisha Latisha Williams, home to rest.

Takeisha Williams leaves to cherish her memory: two children, Mahlik Williams and Makayla Thomas, a devoted partner, Jermaine Thomas, grandparents, Jean and Joseph Redwood, mother Jewel Henry (Robert Henry), two sisters, Sasha and Tasha Williams, four brothers, Devin, Devon, Vashawn Williams, and Jermaine Kemp, cousins Shamalda Witherspoon (Eugene Witherspoon), Shameka Winston, Willie Winston and Victoria Wilkerson, her best friend Buzz Parker, as well as a host of nieces and nephews, friends and other family.

Takeisha "Keisha" Latisha Williams was born in Richmond, Virginia on October 6, 1982, to Jewel Williams and Wilbert Lee Venable. Keisha was 37 years old and lived in Louisville, Kentucky.

Keisha was raised in Richmond, VA, by her grandmother and grandfather, Jean & Joseph Redwood, alongside her cousin, Shamalda Witherspoon. In her youth, Keisha attended Henrico County Public Schools, graduating with her diploma, from Highland Springs High School, class of 2000.

Keisha loved to listen to music, hang out with friends, and was an excellent beautician. Keisha was known by many to be a family-oriented person, with a profound love for children and passion for collecting pictures, even if they your pictures. Keisha had a deep-rooted sense of commitment and loyalty to those she cherished.

Like many of you know, life was not always kind to Keisha. Like many of us, Keisha fell into hardship. Bent and spiritually broken, Keisha reached out for help. She put her best foot forward, leaving her problems behind and moving to Louisville, Kentucky, joining the Wayside Christian Mission Sober Living program on July 25, 2014...WON'T GOD DO IT!

Though this journey was not an easy one, Keisha went on to change her life. When Keisha first became a part of Wayside Christian Mission, she was shy and fearful that she would fail in her quest to live a sober life. She sponsored other women in need, and eventually hosted her own supportive meetings! Keisha was living proof that God is still in the business of restoring broken lives.

Keisha was an active member in her community. She volunteered for Habitat for Humanity, and through hard work and dedication, she was able to rebuild and purchase her first home! She was so happy, and we could not be PROUDER of her.

She will truly be missed!
