

Takira Iyana Shird

March 9, 1998 - May 22, 2002

Takira Iyana Shird, daughter of Charles and Yolanda Shird, was born in Portsmouth, Virginia on March 9, 1998. She departed her life on May 22, 2002. She didn't attend school, but was very intelligent. At the age of two, she learned how to count to twenty. By age of three she learned how to write some of the letters in her name. She loved to draw. She lived a short time here on earth, but had a long life. An angel she was to us all and now an angel with God. She leaves to cherish fond memories: her parents, Charles and Yolanda Shird of Baltimore, Maryland; four brothers, Timothy Johnson, Anton Sellers Jr., Anthony Sellers and Charles Shird III all of Baltimore, Maryland; one sister, Kayla Shird of Waynesboro, Pennsylvania; two grandmothers, Janie Brown and Elizabeth Shird both of Baltimore, Maryland; one great-grandmother, Elease Snively of Waynesboro, Pennsylvania; two grandfathers, Alton Brown and Charles Shird Sr. both of Baltimore, Maryland; three uncles, two aunts, and a host of other relatives.

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
