

Tambra E. Howard

August 14, 1962 - March 30, 2025

The beautiful TAMBRA EVETTE HOWARD was born to the late Sterling Howard and Arnetta Howard on August 14, 1962, in Baltimore City.

Tambra attended Baltimore City Schools. Later she attended Essex Community College where she received her license as a phlebotomist. She worked in several nursing homes to help the elderly.

Tami, “Lady T” to those who know her well, loved the Lord and attended It’s Not What We Say but What the Bible Says Ministries and rarely missed a Sunday Service. Tami loved to play Bingo at Bingo World and playing Tonk with her siblings. Her favorite thing to do was play Uno with her sons and grandsons, sometimes several times a week. She was one of the most generous people you will ever meet. She loved spending time with her family. When you saw Tami, after she greets you, she had one question for you - “Do you have my 8 Mil, you owe me?” We will miss her every day of our lives.

Tambra (Lady T) leaves to mourn her mother, Arnetta Howard; three sons, Danny Ray Watson, Darnell Watson, and Eugene Watkins; two sisters, Tina Lassiter, Darlene Carter; one brother-in-law/her Pastor Joe Carter: four brothers, Sterling Howard, Richard Howard, Kenneth Howard (transitioned), Keith Howard; one sister-in-law, Lisa Swaringen; six grandchildren, Darnell Watson, Jr., Damar Watson, Damari Watson, Armonee Anderson, Milan Anderson, Onyx Anderson; two best friends, Rochelle and Donna and a close family friend, Claudette. She also leaves to mourn: twenty-eight nieces and nephews; three great-nieces and -nephews and a host of other family and friends.
