

Tammie Tarleton

June 27, 1966 - March 3, 2013

An Angel of God descended from heaven and whispered in a soft voice, "Come Home", to our loved one Tammie Tarleton on March 3, 2013 at University Hospital, in Baltimore, Maryland.

Tammie was born on June 27, 1966, to the late Mary Tarleton and Harry James Tarleton Sr. at Provident Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. Tammie was educated in the Baltimore City school system where she graduated at the top of her class. After graduating from High school she went to work for Transit and Traffic Department in Baltimore, MD. for 28 years. Tammie was a devoted mother, grandmother, daughter, sister, aunt and friend. She loved her family and friends and always had a smile that would light up a room.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her devoted father, Harry James Tarleton Sr.; one brother, Alhajji Hassan Abdullah; one son, Stephen Terry Sr.; four grandchildren, Dominic, Stephen Jr., Shillae and Sidney; one aunt, Ruth Tatem of Heathsville, Virginia; best friend, Antoinette Edwards; one goddaughter, Tymira Edwards; 53 nieces and nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ To the family of Tammie Tarleton:

Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ My sincere sympathy is extended to Tammie's family. She was a lovely young lady. I had the pleasure of knowing her for many years through her friendship with my daughter, Tanya Crumble. I enjoyed talking with her during the many times she visited my home. She always had a warm smile and something pleasant to say. I will certainly miss her. May you always remember the good times with Tammie.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
