

Tammye Brooks

October 21, 1956 - June 4, 2016

TAMMYE ZERITA BROOKS, daughter of the late Cornell and Gwendolyn Brooks was born on October 21, 1956 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was a joy and blessing to their lives. Tammye departed this life suddenly on June 4, 2016.

Tammye received her education at Brooklyn Park Jr. and Sr. High School in Anne Arundel County. After graduating from high school she studied at Anne Arundel Community College.

Tammye's professional career includes Gulf Oil Company, Coast Guard, Denny's Restaurant, and La Fontaine Blue. She finally found her passion at Genesis Health Care in 2009.

Tammye loved her job at Genesis for the past seven years. She started out as 'prep cook' at Genesis, and was in the process of being promoted to senior cook prior to her death. She was extremely dedicated to her job and the residents of the nursing home.

Tammye lived her life to the fullest and always had a smile on her face. She accepted everyone and looked for the best in them.

She leaves to mourn: her devoted sons, Jason Brooks and

Ray Mc Neil Jr. (Peanut) of Oakland, California; loving sister, Denise Lyles, Cheverly, Maryland; granddaughters, Jasmine Y. Brooks, Jada A. Brooks of Concord, North Carolina, Jana Brooks (Brooklyn, Md.); adopted granddaughters, Zoey Edwards, Zohra Gaba and Trinity Forsythe; daughter-inlaw, Amber Wengert; lifetime friend, Pam Hawley; special close friend, Connie Hawkins; and a host of other family and friends.
