

Tangela Peaks

September 14, 1959 - May 9, 2018

TANGELA “JILL” PEAKS the oldest daughter of Alfred Cornish and Naomi Christine Peaks was born on September 14, 1959 in Baltimore, MD.

She was affectionately known as “Jill” by her family and friends. She grew up and was a product of East Baltimore. She attended Baltimore City Public Schools and graduated from Lake Clifton High School.

Tangela enjoyed making others laugh. She loved her family and made every attempt to make it known. Unlike her siblings, she enjoyed listening to her hard rock music and alone time with her. 'Boo Boo “Kitty”. Cleaning and not being able to boil water were her specialties her boobs were her biggest joy. Yes, she was different, she was free spirited. Outspoken, loud , a lil weird sometimes, and always ready to leave, but that is what made her Tangela.

Wednesday, May 9, at 3:30 pm, Tangela decided that she had spent enough time without her Grandmother Bertha Peaks, so she closed her eyes and gave God her heart.

Now happy in glory, Tangela leaves her memories and love to be shared by: her father, Alfred Cornish; her mother, Naomi Christine Peaks; two Reginald Peaks (Jacqueline Little Peaks), Andre Peaks (Carla Griffin); four sisters, Geraldine Halsey Johnson (Jimmy Johnson), Kim Thompson, Gail Cornish, and Tia Brown (Kevin Brown); one nephew; Javon Brown; six nieces, Tia Peaks, Chautia Smith, Jerrika and Jermika Chambers Kourtney Peaks, and Janae Brown; one uncle, James Peaks three aunts. Dolores Streat, Margaret Branch Jerry Branch) and Clara Myers (Arthur Myers); three great-nieces; two great – nephews; a host of cousins, family and two close ; Kim Peterson and John Lyons.
