

Tanya Patrice Washington

July 30, 1971 - September 13, 2018

Tanya Patrice Washington was born on July 30, 1971 to the proud parents of Alvin D. Shelton and Trudy C. Washington. She was preceded in death by her loyal aunt June Carter-Ratcliff, father Alvin Shelton and devoted great-uncle Isaac Sr.

Tanya received Christ as her lord and savior at the young age of 10 years old at Ebenezer Baptist Church under Pastor W. J. Cook. The maturation of her spiritual growth was evidenced by active participation as an usher, avid Sunday School attendee and ascension in the ranks of a girl.

She was educated within the Richmond Public School System where she attended John Marshall High School. She was a lover of art and flower. It was not surprising when her art work won 1st Place in the Richmond City Public School System "Art on Parade" and displaying on Broad Street in the window of Thalhimer's Department Store.

Her creative gift spanned throughout illustration coordinating color schemes, decorating (interior), and her love for cosmetology. She enjoyed culinary arts and had excellent skills in housekeeping with attention to detail. She combined all the above mentioned in her career path of hair design. (She was one of the few African American stylist in the Dominican craft)

Tanya leaves to cherish her memories: A son and daughter, Luke A. and Ari M. F. Washington; mother, Trudy C. Washington; stepmother, Joyce Shelton; one sister, Deanda Shelton; two brothers, Anthony Washington and Alvin Shelton Jr. (Melanie); grandmother, Nannie Carter; a devoted great aunt, Mary L. Crumm; she has three aunts, Marian Washington, Deborah and Carolyn Carter; four uncles, Thomas and William Washington, Franz Ratcliff and Junius Carter Jr.; one great uncle, David Fisher of Philadelphia, PA. There are a host of cousins and nieces and nephews of which are too numerous to name. However, Letoina R. Crumm and Audrey Minott are honorably mentined.

“ My deepest heartfelt prayers to the family of my friend Tanya Washington. I met my friend in middle school. We navigated the ups and downs through high school. We graduated and lost contact, then saw each other and picked right up like we had never lost a day. I dont have my special friends but she shall always remain in my heart as just that, a special friend and a special person. I will always love you Tanya.

The days are moving along and last night you visited me for the first time in my dream and you hugged me and hugged me and hugged me. I don't want you to be lonely or afraid. They said God is with you, they say other family that went ahead of you is already there, I don't know about all of what they are saying all I know is that I wish could be there with you because in the dream you seem to be afraid. You know we always had our back. I wish I could come get you.. pick you up, rescue you..I pray that when your spirit settles God takes your hand and take you gently over to his side..I know you are afraid and so am I. I love you, you are loved... YOU WERE LOVE!
