

Tara Bennett

December 9, 1966 - March 9, 2005

Tara Bennett, daughter of Bernard and Alberta Bennett, was born December 9, 1966 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life unexpectedly on March 9, 2005. Tara received her elementary education in the Baltimore City Public School System. She graduated from Mercy High School and continued her education at the Community College of Baltimore. Tara was a dedicated employee of the Federal Government. She began her career with the school program at the Health Care Finance Administration. At the time of her death, she was employed at the Social Security Administration located in Woodlawn, Maryland. Tara received Christ at an early age and attended St. Phillips Lutheran Church in Baltimore, Maryland. Tara later renewed her Christian faith and joined Union Bethel A.M.E. Church in Randallstown, Maryland. Tara had several passions in life. Some of the most essential were, first, her children, then shopping, reading, movies, decorating, and fine dining. She was often seen with her kids shopping and exploring within the Baltimore metro area, buying toys, clothes, the latest home accessories, and groceries for her growing teenage son and twin daughters. On Christmas morning, her living room resembled a typical Toys "R" Us store. The Food Channel was one of her favorites on cable television. She often tried new recipes she saw. As with all experiments, some turned out well, whereas others met with mixed reviews. One huge success was the incredible feast she prepared for the baby shower of her soon-to-be-born niece, Kira Bennett. Not only did she prepare all the food and beverages, she designed a booklet, games and mementos for the party. Like other members of her family, Tara was an avid conversationalist; she constantly talked on the phone with friends and family. People wanted to share their life experiences with her, and she wanted to do the same with them. Many friends and co-workers mourn Tara's passing and will miss her laugh and the great talks they shared with her. Tara leaves behind many devoted and loving family members: her father and mother, Bernard and Alberta Bennett, with whom she shared her life and the responsibility of raising her three precious children, Cameron, Carmen, and Carrie; her brother, Keith Bennett, his wife Tina Bennett, and daughter Kira Bennett; companion and father of her children, Emmanuel Lelani; uncle, James Johnson; aunt, Diane Johnson; cousin, Ronald Johnson; cousin, Dr. Derek Lindsey, his wife Glenda Lindsey, and their son, Derek Lindsey II; and godparents, Sylvia and Vernon Sanders.

“ My condolences to the Bennett Family. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. However, tne bible assures us at John 5:28,29 "The hour is coming in which all those in their memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." May you all find comfort from the holy scriptures.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##

“ I extend my deepest sympathy to each of you in the sudden loss of Tara. I pray that the presence and the peace of the Lord will comfort you, and that you'll draw strength as you trust Him to be your comfort. Trust in your faith that morning will break through the darkness, have faith that a bright, new dawn awaits and know that I will keep you in my prayers. May your hearts find lasting peace among the memories you cherish and hope within the promise of tomorrow. “ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that this scripture comforts you.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences on the loss of you dear loved one. Daniel 12:2 says- "And there will be many of those asleep in the ground dust who will wake up." May you receive much comfort and strength from this divinely inspired promise of a resurrection for our dead loved ones.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy is with you during this time of great lost. It is always very hard to cope with the lost of a loved one. It is so important for us all to know we have a comfort, a comfort of a loving God who cares so very much about us. This is why he lets us know according to his word the bible that death will no longer have a place among the living. Jehovah will turn all the negative effects of death away from us all. Jehovah says according to Isaiah 45:18 he created the earth to be inhabited. Psalms 115:16 says he gives the earth to man. Why would God do such a thing because Jehovah is a God of love 1John 4:8 and being a loving God who loved us first he makes these provisions for those loving him that the righteous will reside upon the earth forever stated at Psalms 37:29. So, being God's purpose for us is to live forever than there is truly no place for death to reside among the living. That is why at Rev. 21: 3, 4 states death will be no more... and the things that causes death will be no more. Jehovah will also correct the damage of death by resurrecting all those who have died according to John 5:28, 29. What a joyous occasion when we will be able to enjoy the lives of those we love once again. This is Jehovah's promised hope from the beginning of mans creations. The hope of everlasting life on earth. Titus 1:2 May this bring comfort to your wounded heart.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
