Tara was kind, a great friend and confidant. She was everything you needed her to be and more in your life. Her family was everything to her. It was important to her to make sure that we all would come together and get to know one another. She would often say 'people come and go without the blink of an eye; spend time and say I Love you. Tara was a mother,grandmother,friend,dance partner,spades runner,and fighter.She had a loving heart.If she had an extra corner in her house anyone could have it.Over the years she has taken in several family members and friends into her home and loved them dearly . This extended not only to people but animals as well. Over the years she had many cats, dogs, rabbits, fish, turtles, and hamsters.
