

Tarsha Michelle Neville

November 21, 1977 - August 16, 2020

Tarsha Michelle Neville, was born November 21, 1977 to Sheila Neville and Michael Woodson in Richmond, Virginia. Tarsha departed this life Sunday, August 16, 2020. She was preceded in death by her grandparents, William and Lucy Randall, Harvey Lee and Rosa Woodson.

Tarsha received her formal education in the Henrico Public School System and attended Henrico High School. She accepted Christ as her Savior at the age of 35 and was united with Redeem Church of God In Christ where she was a devoted member.

She was employed by SunTrust Mortgage for many years. In her leisure, she enjoyed traveling and hosting parties and entertaining.

Tarsha had an immense love for her family. The love of family she inherited from her Granny Lucy was always present. She enjoyed getting the family together for holiday parties filled with food, love and laughter. She loved to cook lavish spreads of abundance for family and friends.

She loved her daughter, Niyah, unconditionally. Niyah was her top priority. Teaching her many life lessons, all with endless love and compasion.

She loved her niece and nephews like her own. Insisting they call her 'Cutie' rather than 'auntie' or 'Tarsha'. They were more than happy to oblige.

As the eldest of three girls, she fostered a bond that has never been broken. Bent a little, but never broken. Teaching Chasta and Ebony the ins and outs of life. Showing them to have empathy for others. Most importantly, how to stick together. Lessons they will carry with them forever.

Her close bond with her mother was admired by many. Tarsha was the first love of her life. She often speaks of how special Tarsha was. At two years old, Tarsha climbed up on her mothers bed, put her head in her hands and simply said, "Let's talk!" Sheila smiled and knew this was the beginning of a beautiful relationship. Tarsha's bond with her dad was unbreakable. He had always been there for Tarsha. Michael provided Tarsha a life he never had while showing the love he learned from his parents. He made sure she never wanted for anything. She was a true daddy's girl.

Many people called Tarsha their 'best friend'. She was a devoted friend to many. Always showing love and kindness to all. She enjoyed making others laugh and feel good about themselves. She has touched so many lives and is loved by all who knew her. Tarsha will forever be in our hearts.

Tarsha loved all her aunts and uncles. She had a special bond with uncle Clarence and uncle Cliff. Speaking to them often and providing assistance any time it was needed. They both were there for her until the very last days.

"Cutie" there ain't never been a girl like you!

She leaves cherished memories to her daughter, Niyah C. Small; parents, Shelia D. Neville and Michael Woodson; sisters, Chasta Hembricks (Jonta) and Ebony Neville; grandparents, Harvey Lee, Rosa Woodson, Lucy and John Randall; aunts, Eunice Neville (Joe), Stacey Neville and Dianna Neville; devoted uncle, Cliff Neville; aunts, Janice Jones, Rosa Woodson, Darlene Porter (James), Cherly Woodson; uncles, Harvey Woodson (Dorthula), and a devoted uncle, Clarence Seegars; nieces and nephews, Kayla, Jaden, Jonte and Cam; devoted friend, Kim Brooks; a host of other relatives and friends, far too many to name.

“ I just want to say I was not ready for you to leave , as I'm sure many share this feeling. You were such a great all around person and I hate to question the most high as I know he makes no mistakes. You were and are a true angel I'm sure you have the most beautiful wings filled with glitter and diamonds. That is what you were glitter and sparkles , pure magic. I know there is a party in the heavens and I know you are the hostess with the most-ess. I never once heard you complain , I never once heard you talk bad. I always saw you trying to make surer everyone else was good. I so appreciate you friend.

Heaven has a new Angel **

*Your pain is gone
Your stay was short
Your memory will last forever
You've touched so many ;Loved by all
There for us when we were about to fall
A whisper of an angel your words will be
The glory of an angel your light shall be
Our new guardian angel you will be
Heaven has a new Angel*

“ I was saddened to hear that Tarsha had taken flight but I am confident that she is at rest. To Niyah, though we never met it is my prayer that GOD will meet your every need and strengthen you in the days ahead. To Sheila, I am truly sorry that your heart is heavy and that your loss is so great. Please know that I am praying for you and your family. To Tarsha aunt ,Eunice, a friend and a sister in Christ;; you are strength in so many ways, for so many others may GOD grace you with that same strength in the days ahead.

“ Tarsha! Girl I met you through my mama and she loved you. I was Niyah’s sitter in high school and I loved her and you. You got me the cutest jeans in high school and you couldn’t tell me anything! We laughed and joked you were hilarious and I learned a lot from you. We will miss you and that beautiful smile. Rest beautifully baby girl. Love Toi.

“ *Tarsha, where can I begin? You were a loving, family oriented, dignified, woman who loved to laugh! I never saw a mother love her child as much as you did Niyah!
I will miss our deep conversations about this crazy life, and you encouraged me to take leaps of faith in so many areas of my life.
The only peace I have about your passing is you knew the Lord and you are no longer in pain. I love you Tarsh, and until we meet again....*
