

Tatyana Jena Weddington

November 1, 1995 - June 29, 2021

Tatyana Jena Weddington (Satterfield), born on November 1, 1995, to Renee Johnson Satterfield's mother and to James Weddington father. We would soon know she would be that blessed child. Tatyana was raised by her Dad Collins Satterfield, that from the first day her smile and those beautiful brown eyes melted his heart, and she became a Daddy's Girl. Tatyana departed this life on June 29, 2021 @ St. Agnes Hospital

Tiana shared special relationship with her Big Sister Shani Woolard Clay and her mentor Tyrell Patterson. Both who played an important part of her education and business goals. Tay would often be heard talking to her big cousin Shelby Garrus, who was her rock.

Tatyana received her formal education from St. Ambrose Catholic School, where she not only found her love of the Lord, but also dancing where she was apart of the Power Dance Ministry. She also was apart of the Basketball team as well as Music Ministry. She continued her education at Arlington Baptist School, receiving her High School Diploma from New Spiritual Foundation Christian Academy. She also received her Trade Diploma from Baltimore School of Massage. Prior to her untimely death she was currently studying Herbal Medicine, she was schedule to graduate in 2022.

Tiana had a true love for people and animals. She would often be seen with her little buddy Zoie “The Yorkie”! If you see Tay, you will see Zoie as they were a package deal. Every morning she would start with her morning prayers and sending out countless text, DM and Snap Chats with Bible Verses and Motivational quotes. To everyone she knew. Tay never met a stranger and would talk to any and everyone. She had the light that could turn any bad day in to a positive one. If Tay were not feeling well, you would never know she never complained about anything or anyone. She could find the best in everyone; she had a gift of those pretty brown eyes and smile that could brighten up any room.

Tiana was the owner and operator of Jena Custom Designs, as well as the Co-Owner of SMT Unlimited Taxes & Credit Repair. She often would be heard talking about what she was going to make next with mother as they worked together building business they owned.

Each and everyday she would be heard say let today us make a positive day and Positive Shan Cains. Tay was a positive light in everyone she came in contact with.

Tatyana leaves to mourn her Granny Fannie Johnson; Poppy Henry Johnson, Sr.; Grandma Mil Mildred Weddington; Mr. Bill. Aunties Angela Alston-Blackwell (Robert); Karen Johnson (George); Debora Johnson; Sherri Williams; Robin El-Amin; Jonita Brown (James). Uncles Henry B.
