“ Our prayers are with your family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible. He assures us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing". Our prayers are with your family.

“ Brother Taureed, i fondly call you. It is shocking to hear the news of your sudden death. Egbon mi, considering that we spoke just not too long about wonderful moments we shared growing up. death is really cruel to have taken you away at this moment, but i take solace in God cos he alone knows everything hidden to man. May your soul rest in perfect peace in the bosom of the Lord. May God Almighty grant the family the enabling grace to bear the loss. Forever, you remain in our heart.

“ I was shocked to hear about the sudden demise of our beloved Uncle Taureed Adisa Soremekun, i had never thought that a day like this will ever come too soon.
I pray that the Almighty God who alone is our comforter in moment like this grants the entire Soremekun family the immense fortitude to bear the irreparable loss. Amen.

“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death can be hard to cope with. Fortunately, God promises to rid the earth of all sickness, suffering, and death (Revelation 21:4). May this bring you comfort in this time of need.

My thoughts and prayers go out to the family of Addis. Addis was a very good friend to me for almost 25 years. We shared a many of conversations and I will always be so very grateful to him for all he did for me and my daughter. I find myself ready to pick up phone and call him and asked him what is he doing and to get out of that apartment and do something. I know he was tired and not adjusting well to not feeling good. I miss him but God knows what is best. His friend to the end. Dinah

Condolences to the Family of Mr. Tauheed. May the peace of God be with you all. When you read the scripture at John 5:28-29 know that there is a promise of the Resurrection from Jesus. Cherish all the wonderful memories until that time comes..
