“ I will always remember Tavian as the fun loving and kind, grade school boy that he was when my son Dylan, first met him at Robious Elementary. They were fast friends and whenever he was in our home, they had the best time together! But, I could'nt get them to eat until after they would "level up"! His happy, smiling face had the power to light up any room he entered. I only just learned from my daughter, who is four-ish years younger, that when her brother was too busy to play a video game with her, Tavian would jump right in and play along with her, she considered him her friend too... What a sweet soul!!! Please know our thoughts and prayers are with The McFarland Family. Your baby boy is now an angel in a better place.
