

Tavon Anthony Burrell

August 18, 1983 - February 11, 2002

Tavon Anthony Burrell Redmond departed this life on Monday evening, February 11, 2002 at University Hospital of Maryland. Tavon was born on August 18, 1983 in Baltimore, Maryland. Tavon lived his life for a brief 18 years and over those years, he spent his days as a child and young adolescent between the homes of his mother, Monica Richardson and his father Michael Redmond. Tavon had special loving and supportive relationships with his parents and sisters, and he loved everyone in his family. Though his life experiences may have been few, he enjoyed video games, swimming, sports, played little league football, and was a cheerful person. Tavon was a very easy-going and sweet person, and his heart was filled with love and kindness. He was gentle and soft-spoken. Tavon attended Baltimore City Schools, and had many dreams yet to fulfill, but his purpose in this world was done, and God reclaimed him as His own. Tavon passed from this world over to God's Hands, leaving his mother Monica Richardson, his father, Michael Anthony Redmond, three sisters, Tammi, Crystal and Ashley; a brother, Christopher, grandmother, Mary Davis; one aunt, Veronica Richardson; four nephews, Tyrone, Paul, Dante, and Demartre; one niece, Tynera; and many other cousins and relatives of the Richardson family; and of the Redmond family, a grandmother, Elizabeth Redmond, five aunts and two uncles, a step-sister, Octavia; eighty-seven (first, second and third) cousins and other relatives; and a host of friends, teachers, church, civic, and community leaders who will remember him fondly.
