

Tavon Stanford

April 27, 1975 - July 12, 2019

Tavon Glen William Stanford was born to Virginia Wiggins and Allen Stanford on April 27, 1975 at 11:59PM at University of Maryland Medical Center. He was affectionately called 'bud' by his mother, and 'cutty' by close friends and family. Tavon was a happy go lucky child who loved to joke and make people laugh.

Tavon attended Dickey Hill Elementary, transferred to 87 Elementary School, then carried on his education at Carver Vocational – Technical High School as well as Walbrook High. He excelled in math and science, although surprisingly he looked forward to being a rapper or a basketball player when he grew up. In his free time he liked to draw cars, collect baseball cards, and play basketball. You would've thought he was training to be part of the NBA the way he constantly made his way to Beechfield Recreational Center every Sunday to play basketball. He never missed a single game or tournament.

Tavon was loved by most and well respected by many. He blessed anyone who came in contact with him, something like a peacemaker as his homies would say. He loved his family dearly, most importantly his children. He did everything necessary for them and more, from materialistic things to physical and emotional.
