

Taylor Janae Crenshaw

December 21, 1994 - August 29, 2016

Taylor Janae Crenshaw, 21 was born December 21, 1994 to Felicia and Alton Crenshaw in Richmond, Virginia. She was called home to the pearly gates of heaven on August 29, 2016. She is preceded in death by her paternal grandparents, Dorothy M. and Eddie W. Crenshaw; maternal grandfather, Leon Hamlin.

At an early age she was baptized at Trinity Baptist Church in Richmond. Taylor graduated from James River High School and began to focus wholeheartedly on her passions of working.

She was truly an example of a virtuous woman. God safely trusted her with the blessing of caring for her daughter, Madison. She had her best interest at heart at all times.

Taylor's family called her blessed by all her earthly talents God had blessed her with. Her worth was far above rubies. She was the today's woman with an unapologetic flair in her thoughts throughout her writings to the world. She willingly worked with her hands and was an avid blogger. She set about her work vigorously; her arms were strong for her tasks. Taylor sees that her blogging is profitable, and her lamp does not go out at night.

A loving mother, daughter, sister and friend, that was humbled by the attention and the opportunity to share her insights. She would advise young people to trust in God with all their might and to lean not on their own understanding. She paid attention and tried to assist people in who wanted to have an advancement in their life.

In her leisure she enjoyed writing and photography. A fearless spirited woman with a great passion that marched to her own beat. However, she was always available to heal and comfort others.

“Many women do noble things, but she surpassed them all.”

Charm is deceptive, and beauty is fleeting;

but a woman who fears the Lord is to be praised.

Give Taylor the reward she has earned, and let her works bring her praise at the city gate.

She leaves to cherish her loving memories to a daughter, Madison Crenshaw; parents, Felicia and Alton Crenshaw; two sisters, Jasmine Lewis (Lonnell) and Shakita Macklin; grandmother, Laverne Hamlin; aunts and uncles, Carolyn Rice (Albert), William Crenshaw, Marshall Chenshaw (Charlene), Eugene Crenshaw (Felicia), Elsie Crenshaw, Evelyn Crenshaw, Maria Crenshaw and Leon Hamlin; two nieces, J'ael Lewis and Jaya Lewis; a nephew, Jase Lewis; a host of other relatives and caring friends.

“ I known Taylor since forever.. She never cared what nobody had to say about her, but at the same time you could tell she cared deeply about others and what THEY were going thru, maybe more so then she cared about her own wellbeing. When Madison grows up she'll be able to look her mother up and see how loved she was.. The good seem to die young, and Taylor was great. Love ya Taylor, I hadnt seen you in awhile and we werent too close in the last few years but I always respected you as a person and I hope to God you can see me writing this.. Fly High Babygirl

“ My condolences to the family. Taylor was like a sister to me. I've never met anyone with as much heart and such visionary qualities as she had. Not my place to say, but please paint her nails red before she's laid to rest. She always had them red, she would've wanted it... 💔

“ I was saddened to read of the loss of your loved one. I personally experienced the grief of losing my loved ones. However, there is comfort to know the Holy Scriptures gives the assurance that God will end death, pain and sorrow. Rev 21:3,4 I hope this brief Bible message brings comfort to you and your family.
