

Tayon Andre Bethea

September 13, 2007 - September 6, 2022

Leaving us suddenly, Tayon Andre Bethea was born on September 13, 2007, in Baltimore, Maryland. On September 6, 2022, Tayon became an angel, picked up his wings, and took a trip to heaven. Fourteen years of awesome, countless memories, and tons of laughs. Tayon leaves his mom Ashley Denise Webb, dad Darryl Andrea Bethea Jr., to keep his three sisters, Tayonna Monay Carter, Desiree Andrea Bethea and, Taylynn Anay Bethea, and one brother Darryl Andrea Bethea III, safe so that the chain will not break any further.

Surrounded by an abundance of love, Tayon leaves his grandmothers, Mary Clay-Johnson, and Iris Beasley. Grandfathers, Charles Webb Sr., Levy Johnson, and James McKiver. A host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and one special auntie Suneeta Clay to cherish his memories. There are friends, there is family, and then there are friends that become family, more like a sister; Tayon leaves his Nae Nae (Branae Powell) lots of love and irreplicable memories of her "small brother."

A go-with-the-flow kind of guy, Tayon made you laugh and could give you a good run and chase me at the drop of a dime. Making his way through life, Tayon completed his elementary education at Baltimore Monarch Academy, his middle school education at Baltimore Montessori Public Charter School, and began his high school education at Mervo High School. A future goal

Tayon had for himself was enlisting into the military, but he wasn't concrete on which branch he wanted to enroll in.

An outdoor and adventurous guy, Tayon most recently completed "The Outward-Bound" program where he had the opportunity to live and function in nature without modern technology, and he loved it. A typical teenager, Tayon also enjoyed playing his PlayStation, going to the amusement park, and playing a good game of laser tagging with his family and friends. So, for now, that Tayon is no longer with us, he is forever in our hearts. Please remember him in the living and not when it was time for him to depart.

"If tears could build a stairway and memories build a lane, we would walk right up to heaven and bring you home again."
