

Ms. Teddie Mae Watkins

January 5, 1942 - June 9, 2016

Teddie Mae Watkins, daughter of the late Goldie Mae Tunney, was born January 5, 1942 in West Virginia. She passed away on June 9, 2016.

She attended Carver Vocational Technical High School in Baltimore, Maryland and went on to marry Rufus R. Watkins in 1957. They had four daughters, Barbara, Karen, Stephanie and Candace.

A dedicated employee of Reliable Stores, Inc. in Columbia, Maryland for over twenty-five years, she ultimately retired from the State of Maryland.

She was a passionate Baltimore Orioles fan and enjoyed a number of hobbies, including knitting and sewing. After retirement, she regularly attended classes at the Waxter Center where she made new friends and continued to pursue her love of crafting. She was also a longtime member of Mt. Lebanon Baptist Church.

She was preceded in death by: her husband, Rufus; her daughter, Karen Watkins; and her grandson, Cornell "Cory" Watkins.

The family is immensely grateful to Venus Ricks and the staff at Mable's House for their exceptional care and support. Although she was a resident for less than a year, we were all treated like family.

She will be dearly missed by: daughters, Barbara Watkins, Stephanie Watkins and Candace Watkins; grandchildren, Chantel Watkins and Cameron Watkins; sister, Barbara Jackson; niece, Tiffany Jackson; nephew, Christopher Jackson; great-nephew, Montrey Thompson; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Ms. Teddie was such a pleasant and a wonderful Lady. I admired her determination and her steps towards getting to work despite her age and discomforts. I would see her regularly has she chauffeured her daughter to the grocery. I made certain to speak and to let her know she was missed at DLLR. May the family, find comfort in knowing that she has been chauffeured to a better Place. Heaven. Her home. May you know that during this difficult time, God had already prepared a place for her and one day we will all be there. Her love will always remain. Sonia Scott-Cameron
