

Terance Mathurin

January 18, 1940 - April 17, 2020

Terance Mathurin, son of the late Ambrose and Miriam Mathurin was born on January 18, 1940 in St. Croix, U.S. Virgin Islands.

He departed this life peacefully on Friday, April 17, 2020.

Terance was educated in the St. Croix Public School System.

He served as a NYPD Officer and many years as a State of NY Emergency Medical Technician.

Terance was owner/operator of his limousine service for many years of which he enjoyed meeting many celebrities.

He married Rachel McCrae on November 20, 1995.

He was a faithful member of Bethel A.M.E. Church.

Terance leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Rachel Mathurin; two sons, Leibert and John; two daughters, Leona Alphonse and Polina Davis; son-in-law, Willie Davis; six grandsons, one great-granddaughter, his beloved mother-in-law, a host of relatives, friends, many brothers and sisters-in-Christ, that he loved dearly.

“ To my Father In-law Mr. Terrance Mathurin, It was a pleasure knowing you I remember my first Limo ride was in your Limousine. You took us all over New York city sightseeing and I will never forget that. Thanks for that great memory. You accomplished a lot during your life and now God has called you home to rest. I will miss you. Love your Son In-law Willie Davis.
