

Teresa Ann Harper

April 2, 1975 - February 26, 2010

TERESA A. HARPER, daughter of the late Rosa Harper and Grant Rogers, was born on April 2, 1975 in McDowell County, West Virginia. She departed this life suddenly on February 26, 2010. Teresa was an advocate for poetry and she spent her past time expressing herself through her writings. She received her education at Lake Clifton Senior High School in Baltimore, Maryland. Teresa furthered her education at PTC Career Institute, where she received her GNA license. She worked various employment and was employed with Tax Services in Baltimore until her untimely death. Teresa made numerous friends wherever she went and had a jolly and bubbly spirit. She was a true friend and helped everybody. She will be sincerely missed. Teresa was a very special person; and when it came to her nieces and nephews, she made them feel special in their own way. They called her Aunt Goodie because she would give the kids anything they wanted. Although they weren't suppose to have candy, she would give it to them. Teresa was a lovable person, and she never judged anyone. Teresa leaves to mourn: two brothers, Robert Harper and Tommy L. Lilly-Rodgers; five nephews, Robert D., Robert L. Jr., Darhon L., Jemar L. and Deonta Divine L. Harper; niece, Jae'Lah R. Harper; grandparents, John O. and Anna R. Harper; great-aunt, Frances Harper; three aunts, Anna, Francine and Regina Harper; three uncles, John, Donald and James Harper; cousins, Ronnie C., Tekesha M., Anthony R. and Antonio J. Harper; a very special cousin, Cleovra Harper; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ *Please accept my condolences. It seems unfair that death has the power to take away someone we love. The Bible is comforting in this regard. It promises that our loved ones now dead will indeed live again. You can read these words at John 11:20-27. May you find comfort and strength in God's Word the Bible.##imported-begin##S. “ I would like to express my deepest sympathy to Ms. Harper's family and friends. The untimely loss of one so dearly loved can result in deep sorrow that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy". But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1Corinthians 15:26, Isaiah 25:8 and Revelation 21:4. Also, Daniel 12:2 encourages us with the hope of a resurrection by stating:"many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May your cherished memories and God's Word of Truth comfort your heart.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry for your loss. The death of a loved is such a painful time. Only God truly understands the depth of your pain, and he offers comfort and hope to each of you at this most difficult time . Please read Isaiah 26:19, Psalm 37:29 and John Chapter 11.##imported-begin##P Land##imported-end##
