

Teresa Ann Harvey

August 1, 1960 - April 19, 2019

TERESA ANN HARVEY was born on August 1, 1960. Affectionately called "Tee" by family and friends, Teresa was known for her amazing sense of humor, love of sunflowers, the Dallas Cowboys, Bobby Brown and family. Enjoying childhood in "Bed Stuy baby" as she would proudly say, Teresa would later move to Richmond, Virginia where she met the love of her life Calvin Harvey. They were married on April 9, 1988. Together they raised their girls Tracey & Crystal.

Teresa was passionate about caring for others and enjoyed a career spanning 31 years at VCU Health. Able to bring a smile to everyone's face with an infectious laugh, witty jokes and a positive attitude. Teresa spearheaded a back to school back pack drive for children patients at the VCU Otolaryngology (ENT) clinic. In 2018 she was honored with a VCU Nurses Week Award. Also savvy business woman, Teresa founded the TCT Design Firm & Leading Ladies RVA.

A beautiful and charismatic soul, Teresa leaves to cherish her devoted husband Calvin Harvey; daughters, Tracey and Crystal; siblings, Jerry Kates, Earline Kates (Joe), Anthony Kates, Jeffrey Kates (Miriam), Felicia Kates, Karen Shelton (Gordon Sr.), Katrina Pitt (Dennis Sr.), Sheila Kates-Offord, in-laws: Cynthia Folsom (Lacey), Gary Harvey (Wanda), Iantha Harvey, Sandra Harvey; devoted niece and nephew Jayqua Williams & Jayquan Kates, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins; godson, Ceyshawn Morris, and many loving friends including Janice Jones & Lakeisha Morris.

Teresa is preceded in death by her mother Pauline Kates.

"I lived a good life!"

Tracy, you and my daughter have been best friends way back since Cool Lane so I have known you and your family for quite awhile; your Mom was a truly kind and sincere person. I know your heart is aching right now and I'm thinking of you with lots of love and sending your family and you healing prayers and comforting hugs
