

Teresa S. Williams

September 19, 1965 - December 2, 2004

Teresa Williams, daughter of Barbara Davis and James Davis, stepfather, Vance Hill, was born on September 19, 1965 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life at a young age on Thursday, December 2, 2004 after a lengthy illness. Teresa attended Baltimore City Public Schools. Upon completion she devoted herself to raising her children. Teresa worked for T&T for four years until her illness prevented her from continuing. Teresa was a fun-loving, good-natured person who loved to cook. Teresa loved her children and granddaughter. As a mother Teresa understood the importance of spending quality time with her children and encouraging them to finish school. Giving of herself was what she enjoyed. She never hesitated to show her concern or voice her opinion. She lived with pride, dignity and respect. Teresa had two brothers who preceded her in joining with the Lord, Michael and Myron. Teresa leaves to cherish her memory: two daughters, Laykeysha Williams and Tiara Williams; son, Antonio Tates; and grandmother, Nonica. She also leaves four sisters and two brothers, Vernish, Ave', Debra and Delphine, James and Vance Jr.; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends including dear friend, Jackie Weakley and family.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the Family of Teresa Williams, My condolences on the passing of your loved one. Please find comfort in Isaiah 26:19 which states, “Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine—they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, YOU residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of mallows, and the earth itself will let even those impotent in death drop [in birth]”. What a wonderful hope the Bible holds out, we CAN and WILL see our loved ones again. Please keep this scripture in mind especially when you find yourself missing your loved one.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To the family: Please accept my condolences. It seems so unfair that death has the power to take away our dear love ones. The bible assures us that Jehovah "...will swallow up death forever..." and those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." May you draw comfort and strength from these words. Isaiah 25:8 and John 5:28,29.##imported-begin##Vanessa Adams##imported-end##
