February 1, 1949 - June 22, 2008

TERITA VALERIE JEFFERSON MITCHELL was born in Baltimore, Maryland on February 1, 1949 to the late Roland and Josephine Jefferson. The Lord called her home on June 22, 2008. Terita, affectionately known as Rita of Ma, attended Dunbar High School and later completed the nursing program and received her certificate at Watterson Skill Center. During Rita's younger years, she married the late Stanley Jones Sr. and out of this union came five children, Lisa Bell, Stanley Jones Jr., Zachary Jones, Jermaine Jones and Yolanda Jones. She later married Louis Mitchell, who loved her and was by her side for over twenty years. Rita was a very kind-hearted, loving person who would do anything for her children and family. Some of her favorite things to do was reading, cleaning, decorating, and collecting stuffed animals. Rita accepted the Lord into her heart at New Generation Ministries, where she grew a special bond with the pastor. She is preceded in death by her parents Roland and Josephine, loving niece Tina Jefferson and special friend Gwendolyn Jefferson. She leaves in loving memory: five children, Lisa, Stanley, Zachary, Jermaine and Yolanda; husband, Louis (Mitch) Mitchell; son-in-law, Donald; two daughters-in-law, Nickie and Missy; four siblings, Roolena, Savena, Roland and Gerald (Shang); nine grandchildren, one great-grandchild and a host of nieces, nephews, friends and loved ones. “ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. I know the sadness associated with the loss of one you love and I know the comfort offered by God in his word the Bible. Please read John 5:28,29 and Acts 24:15 which tells about the hope of a resurrection for the righteous and the unrighteous. After reading these two scriptures please turn your attention to John 3:16 and Matthew 20:28. These two scriptures tell us why we can put faith in the promise of a resurrection. May these provide you with comfort and hope as they have for me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ To the family I offer my heartfelt condolences. The death of a loved one is so heartbreaking, and I am so very sorry for your pain. Know that Jehovah God is with you in your sorrow, and he promises that one day he will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more. Rev 21,4. I can't begin to know how you feel, because everyone feels the pain of death in a different way. All I can say is trust in Jehovah, follow the Christ, be faithful and obedient to the father, and trust in him with all your heart. Then one day you will see Terita again in the promised resurrection. Acts 24:15##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of Mrs. Mitchell. The Bible lovingly reveals a resurrection for our dead loved ones. John 5:28,29 states: "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out,those who did good things to a resurrection of life." May you receive much comfort and strength from the wonderful hope of a resurrection found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Hill##imported-end##
