

Terle Tamara Jones

June 29, 1953 - November 28, 2010

TERLE TAMARA JONES, born in Baltimore, Maryland on June 29, 1953. The daughter of Ernestine Y. and Leighton M. Jones, departed her life on November 28, 2010 after battle with a lengthy illness.

Terle, the youngest daughter of seven children, was preceded in death by two brothers Leighton Jr. and Tyrone Sturgess. Terle received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System, graduating from Westside High School in 1972.

After uniting with Freddie Graham, Sr. (who has preceded her in death) were born two children, Kelly and Freddie Graham, Jr. Terle later in union with I. Daniel Smith had three children Brandy, Danya and Daniel Smith.

Terle's employments lead her to work for the United States Postal Service for thirty-three years, until her retirement in July of 2008. She loved spending time with her family as well as listening to her favorite music by the Temptations, Dells and Luther Vandross.

Terle love traveling with her close friends Diana Freeman, Carolyn Thompson, Niecy Franklin, Queen Jackson and Shelia Walls to various locations to include Atlanta, Georgia and Las Vegas, Nevada. If she wasn't traveling she enjoyed a game on the computer or a football game while still making time to go fishing.

All who knew Terle will always remember her for gracious smile and pretty green eye.

She leaves to cherish her memory and celebrate her life: loving parents, Ernestine and Leighton Jones; children, Kelly, Freddie, Brandy, Danya and Daniel; twelve loving grandchildren with one new arrival on the way, one great-grandchild; one sister, Jena Jones; three brothers, Jae, Jonathan and Jerrol Jones; two brother-in-law, Robert Graham, Sr. and Alonzo J. Williams; and a host of aunts, uncle, nieces, nephews, cousins, and her extended family at the Post Office.
