“ Good day all,

I just thought I'd come back to say after 12 years I was reunited with my niece Raynisha, aka MEATBALL on 09/03/2016. She was a sophomore I believe at the time at Frostburg and it was homecoming. She was a cheerleader, well the base and it was very beautiful to just see her. I went to see her with my younger sister Tiffany Eldridge and my partner Arneka. September 3 is now Niece-A-Versary, not a sad day.

Since the day my niece and I have been reunited we have been inseparable, and I've also been reunited with my other nieces and nephews.

Raymond graduated from Polytechnic High School 2017 and Taekwon will graduate from Mervo this year.

I talk to my nieces and nephews a lot about the real Mia because now they are older to understand and hopefully with those facts instead of a fairytale or lies it'll ease the pain. I continue to beat myself up for neglecting to make more memories even though I was a child and I just thought having the best big sister ever was one of those forever things.

I miss my sister so much and I couldn't even tell you her favorite color or her favorite food. I do remember she loved okra and Jill Scott though. And a little Mad Dog 20/20. She was always smiling, always happy. Always changing her hair, even during chemo gluing a weave to her scalp OKAYYYY.

My sister was perfect to me as a child, I'm happy for the wisdom that came with being 28 being this heart ache doesn't hurt as bad. I love you so much Mia! Forever. Your children are all doing so so well, I'm sure you already know.

Love you forever and I mean that; see you real real soon. Nothing on this earth means as much because now I don't have you.

“ I talk about you often trying to keep your legacy alive. To be strong, always love, never stagnant, and faithful through every storm. You were than just my oldest sister, you stepped up and became a mother figure when Mom lacked strength. You kept our family together and you never ever not lent a helping hand to any of your siblings.

Even during your illness, a phenomenal mother you always were. I've never seen a house hold run so well, I've never seen children so happy, filled with love, and warm smiles on their faces.

I only wish I paid attention more to have more to tell my nieces and nephews about you. You liked doing hair, cooking, hosting house parties cleaning and dancing. You loved your nephew Damien and your Grandma Eldridge and I lowkey think Raymond still had your heart.

No one played with you, you kicked butt! And you were so so so in love with Jesus!

Your bestfriend Nae, would come see you every night after working the Cheesecake Factory to vent and u always stayed up to listen. Your forgiving heart, to all you've been through is exactly why our awesome God helped you overcome everything the enemy thought would break you. I don't know another woman stronger and I'm so blessed to have had been connected to you.

You should see your children they are so beautiful it's amazing they are so strong so happy they are you. Continue to look over us and guide us all I will never forget you babygirl. I love you. So much. Forever. Pinky dreaming promise!

“ Dear Eldridge/Smith Family, I am truly sorry to hear of the loss of Termiaria. Death is such an enemy as the scriptures say and that is why our Creator promises us that he is going to do away with it very soon (Isaiah 25:8,9). Termiaria is resting right now awaiting the resurrection that Jesus spoke about when he was on earth.(John 5:28,29) In the days ahead please be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ It is very sad when a beautiful person must lose their life so young. I am very sorry for your great loss. However, there is comfort in the scriptures. Acts 24:15 says "...that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." So you all have the chance to reunite with Mia on this earth. We must now wait on Jehovah God to fulfill his promises and to wipe out "...pain [and] outcry...". (Revelation 21:4)###imported-begin###Kendra###imported-end##

“ It's so hard to lose you but I know you are in a better place. Mia, you are no longer suffering and now you are at rest watching over your little angels. You will always be remembered for being courageous and strong, you were a wonderful mother and you still will be, because I know you are with those babies in their heart every step of the way. Well you sleep now and remember we all shall meet again in that mansion in the sky. your friend Tammy###imported-begin###Tamara###imported-end##

“ Taekwon came to my office not long ago, and we started to talk about you. He doesn't remember when you first left, but I still do. We looked all over the internet for you, but I couldn't remember how to spell your name. Raymond came in a couple of days later with a paper with your name on it. We are on Spring Break now, so I can't show them I found you. But as soon as we get back, I will. Until then...###imported-begin###Ellyn Berkowitz###imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow, know tht the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation (2 Corin. 1:3,4) God has promised to do away with death and the pain that it causes. May these words be of comfort to the family.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##

“ Termiarria was my sister and she pratically raised me. Losing her was the worst day of my life but it was also the best. Since my sister's death, I have tried to keep in touch with my six neices and Nephews but it has been hard. I do not think that the people they are staying with want me to see them. but they are my babies. I am only 16 years old and i miss my sister so much!!! I cry everyday thinking about her and I hope someone reads this and can help me find my neices and nephews...##imported-begin##Tarsha McFarlin##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Although we never met, I have had the wonderful privilege of knowing you through the beautiful children that you left behind. Through them, I know that you were a wonderful, loving person who only wanted the best for the ones you loved. Taekwon was my student in 2004-2005, and he was and will always be one of the most memorable children I have had the opportunity to teach. Even from above, you have done a wonderful job guiding and watching over your babies. I hope you are resting well, and that you know what a wonderful mother you are!##imported-begin##Ellyn Berkowitz##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. Almighty God sees your pressure and your deep pain. Even more than than He has had many loving promises written down for us. 2 Peter chapter 3, verse 13 says- "But there are new heavens and a new earth that we are awaiting according to his promise, and in these righteousness is to dwell." At that time the earth will be a peaceful paradise with no more sickness, death, sorrow or pain. (Please read Psalm 37:10,11,29; Isaiah 33:24 and Matthew 5:5) May these promises from God give you much comfort and hope.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family of Termiaria Eldridge; My condolences are with you and your family for the loss of your sister, mother, daughter, granddaughter and friend. My heart especially goes out to the children she left behind. As a mom, my worse fear is to leave this earth and leave my children to live without me. However, I know that if I did it would be only for a short time as it will be for your loved one. Death hurts because we were created in God's image and He will exist forever and He instilled a will in us to live forever. Although we die, God's word, not man's, tells us at Isaiah 26:19 "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine-they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents of the dust!" Please be comforted by this scripture and look forward to this promise from our loving Heavenly Father and Creator.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##
