“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy to Terrell's family aand friends. His untimely death is very painful. Words of comfort are hard to come by at this difficult time, however, I have found the best source of comfort in God's Word, the Bible. Please be encouraged to know that God promises to do away with death and all the pain it causes. And He holds out the hope of a resurrection for all who mourn-Daniel 12:2; 1 Corinthians 15:26; Revelation 21:3,4. It is my sincere hope this will comfort your hearts.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I offer my deepest sympathy. Death is truly a heartbreaking event, especially when someone is so young as your Terrell was. I too lost a son, and I definitely know how it feels. It is so comforting to know that God holds our loved ones in his memory, and one day he promises to raise them from the sleep of death, back to life in peaceful conditions. It was never his purpose for people to die, but he wants us to live forever in peaceful and secure conditions. He promises to swallow up death forever, according to Isaiah 25,8, and to wipe the tears from all faces. May your precious memories of Terrell sustain you at this time, because death cannot wipe out the memories of happier days. So keep these close to your hearts dear ones, until the glorious day of the resurrection arrives.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
