

Terri T. Pittman

April 20, 1958 - August 17, 2014

MINISTER TERRI T. GILMORE PITTMAN was born on April 20, 1958 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Thelma and the late DJ Gilmore. After a lengthy illness, on Sunday, August 17, 2014 angels gathered around her in her home in accordance with God's command "Loose Her," they gently took her home to be with her Heavenly Father.

Although she will be missed by many, her life has served as a beacon of perpetual inspiration to not only us but also many generations to follow. Terri's legacy will always be remembered for she embraced with conviction the love of "family and church."

At a tender age, through the teaching of her parents, Terri understood the importance of having Christ in her life. She joined the Mt. Ararat Baptist Church on April 4, 1972 under the pastorate of the late Dr. Samuel B. Redd and was baptized May 5, 1972. Terri remained a faithful member under the leadership of Rev. Dr. Charles E. Coger until her health failed her. She became a licensed, ordained Minister in 2005, where she was proud to announce her calling.

Terri received her education in the Baltimore Public School System, then furthered her education in Colorado at Trinidad State College. She took pride in her profession in the Customer Service field. She enjoyed sharing her voice throughout Baltimore and surrounding counties. She had a special gift of writing and acting which she never gave herself credit for but would always say her gifts were a blessing from God.

The Lord blessed Terri in marriage to Eric D. Pittman with thirty-three wonderful years. Unknowingly to her, the Lord had a special plan for her and later gave her charge as Surrogate Mother to Ra'chell, Sherell and Ja'nell. Later she was blessed with seven wonderful grandchildren. She centered herself around her family that she loved and adored very much.

One exceptional act for which Terri will be remembered is her undying compassion to serve others when they were in need and unable to fend for themselves. She always had a word of encouragement to all, many will miss her many acts of kindness and her generous spirit.

Terri leaves to cherish and celebrate great memories: her devoted and beloved husband, Eric Pittman; three daughter, Ra'chell Chmielewski (Brandon), Sherell Smith (Micah) and Jan'ell Townes; two sister, Judy Patterson and Sheila Townes; three brothers, DJ Michael, Melvin and Ray A. Pittman, two brothers-in-law, Charles and Jerome Pittman, two sisters-in-law Sylvia and Mauresse Pittman; a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews and cousins; and a devoted friend Michele Douglas; a god send Lafrances Frazier and other friends.

“ I'm so sorry to read of your loss. I can't imagine the pain that you feel at this time. May the God of comfort be with you at this time and in times to come. He promises the hope of seeing our dead loved ones again. That promise is at John 5:28,29 and also Rev. 21:3,4.

Sophie Strachan-Moreno - September 07, 2014 at 09:32 AM

“ *To the entire Pittman family,
My heartfelt condolences go out to your entire family. I hope you are able to gain comfort in such scriptures as Revelation 21:3,4.*

“ My sincere condolences to your family. Death of a loved one is never easy to deal with and our heavenly Father knows this very well. That is why he made this promise in his word the Holy Bible that very soon death will be swallowed up so that we will not experience that pain anymore. This is found your in Bible at Isaiah 25:8. His wonderful son, Jesus Christ not only promised that there will be a resurrection of those that died; (John 5:28, 29) but he also demonstrated it when he resurrected his dear friend Lazarus from death; (John Chapter 11).

I hope that during this difficult time these and other delightful promises from our heavenly Father bring some comfort to your family.

“ My condolences to the Family. The death of a loved one is the most difficult thing we deal with. I wanted to take this time to express my condolences to you for your loss. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's word the Bible. (Psalms 83:18) The Bible promises: "And he (Almighty God Jehovah) will wipe out every tear from their eyes, And death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore." (Revelation 21:4) Death will be removed from all the earth. Tears of sorrow will vanish. No one will die from natural causes or weep. The Bible also assures us: "there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." (Acts 24:15) Jehovah God assures us that our dear dead loved ones will receive a resurrection to a restored beautiful paradise earth. (Isaiah 65:21,22) You can have the hope of being reunited with your dear dead loved ones here on earth. These are promises that will soon be a reality.(Hebrews 6:18) May you find comfort from these promises. And may Jehovah God of all comfort be with you. (2Corinthians 1:3,4)
