

Terry Bond

December 12, 1963 - January 2, 2021

Terry McCall Bond Sr., 57, gained his wings on January 2, 2021 to be with our Heavenly Father, his brother Bobby and his father Roosevelt. Terry was born to Roosevelt and Loretta in Baltimore, Maryland on December 12, 1963.

Terry graduated from City High School. He later became Regional Manager at Sam's Bagel. Over the past decade Terry had evolved in his professional career as a Reverse Mortgage Specialist, which lead him to opening his own business titled the "Terry Bond Home Improvement, LLC." Terry was a hard worker and highly skilled, he could fix anything. Terry showed early signs of being a hell raiser, while in his mother's stomach by kicking to get out! He was known for being loud, funny, and an agitator. Terry's way of showing love to his family was to agitate them until they begin to fuss. Terry considered himself to be a chef and make sure everyone knew it.

The most important person to Terry was his mother! He was deeply devoted to his mother and his children. He simply had a heart of gold.

Terry met Annetta Duff in 2013 and they lived together in Baltimore, Maryland. Terry raised 6 children Terry Jr., Katrina, Angel, Isaiah, Ashley and Shakira Bond with the assistance of their mothers. Terry is also survived by his (14) grandchildren, (mother) Loretta Avery (step-father) Willie Avery, (3-siblings) Raymond, Pamela, and Donnell. Along with his favorite cousin Timothy McCall host of nieces, nephews and cousins that loved him dearly.
