

Terry Brownlee

January 5, 1954 - August 27, 2013

SISTER TERRY DENISE JOHNSON-BROWNLEE, daughter of the late Louis and Nellie Johnson, was born on January 4, 1954 in Baltimore, Maryland. On August 26, 2013, God dispatched angels to guide Terry's soul to eternal rest. Terry, better known as "Niecey," received her education through the Baltimore City Public School System. Niecey received further training in nursing at Coppin State College and was a medical assistant for more than ten years. She never shied away from any challenge or employment opportunity that would allow her to gain new skills.

At an early age, Niecey attended New Hope Baptist Church under the late founder, Rev. William Nelson Stokes. In later years, she was reinstated and baptized under the leadership of Dr. James J. Fuller. Niecey loved the Lord and her church family. She expressed her love through her active membership on the Fellowship Choir and regular attendance in the Church School and Computer Ministries. In the Computer Ministry, she enjoyed writing and sharing her beautiful poems. Niecey continued in these ministries of the church until her health prevented her from participating in these weekly activities. Her favorite song was "This Little Light of Mine."

God blessed Niecey with a beautiful daughter, Nichelle, affectionately known as "Kelly." She was married to the late Warren Brownlee. A philosopher once said, "It's not how you start the race, it's how you finish." Niecey finished her race ten years drug-free and a hard fought battle with cancer. She was preceded in death by two sisters, Gail and Louise and one brother, Louis Jr.

Terry leaves to cherish her memory: a loving daughter, Nichelle Johnson-Glenn; son-in-law, Brian Glenn; three grandchildren, Brian Jr., Louis and Deana; four sisters, Diane, Darlene, Paulette and Doreen; two brothers, Leonard and Calvin; two brothers-in-law, an aunt, Alta Helen Willoughly; and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.
