

Terry E. Hill

February 14, 1957 - March 28, 2013

TERRY EDWARD HILL, son of Ruth Harris and the late Walter Preston Hill, Sr., was born on February 14, 1957 in Baltimore, Maryland. He was the youngest of nine children. On March 28, 2013, Terry Hill departed this life after a lengthy illness to enter into a more peaceful place. Only if you knew Terry without a doubt before departing, he inquired from his Savior to take care of his girls.

Terry had a special place in his heart for his mother and daughters that put him in mind of a song he always sung — “My Girl” by The Temptations.

Terry enjoyed watching sports. He loved spending time with his daughters and grandchildren whom they called “Daddy.” Terry often liked to laugh and joke with his nieces and nephews. They kept him in a cheerful spirit. His memorable times were bickering and debating with his family, especially his oldest sister Mae. He had a pleasant smile and personality that brightened the room when he was around.

Terry received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He worked numerous jobs. The one that he enjoyed the most was working as a Head Chef.

He leaves to mourn: his devoted, loving mother, Ruth Harris; two daughters, Dayneia and Amber; his brother, Rev. Willie James Harris; three sisters, Lillie Mae, Patricia Ann and Ruth Aleatha Hill; sister-in-law, Naomi Harris; four grandchildren, Ronald, Dayron, Anthony and Montré Hill; a special friend, Rosetta Levine; and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

Two brothers, Ezell and Walter; two sisters, Barbara and Ivory Hill; and a nephew, Ronald Cox, Jr. a.k.a. "Peanut;" all preceded him in death.

“ Please accept our deepest condolences in this sad time for your family. (Rev. 21:4)

Burts Family - March 31, 2013 at 10:26 PM

“ Dear Family and Friends,
It is understood that the pain, the grief, and the feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable when you lose a loved one. During these times, you can find comfort in God’s Word. The Bible helps us to understand how Jehovah and Jesus feel about death. Jehovah promised that “He will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore.”—Revelation 21:4 Jesus said that “all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:28, 29) People who are to be restored to life right here on earth will be reunited with their loved ones. The dead will not be raised to life in a world filled with war, crime, and sickness, because God’s purpose is that the whole earth be made into a paradise. They will have an opportunity to live forever on this earth in peaceful and happy conditions. What a loving God and such a wonderful hope for you and your loved one.

Sincerely,
A Bible Student

“ I am so sorry for the loss of your loved one. God did not intend for us to feel the pains of death. God promises that one day soon he will end death forever and those we lost in death will be resurrected right here on earth. John 5:28- "Do not marvel at this, because the hours is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear my voice and come out."

What a wonderful and joyful time that will be to see our loved ones again! But until then please accept my prayers for you and your family.

“ To the Family of Terry E. Hill,

I can symphasize with what you all are going through at this time because like others I have lost loved ones in death and it something very hard to cope with but you are all in my prayers. Your loved one is no longer suffering in this wicked world that we are surrounded by each and every day. Please take solace in knowing that we all have a hope laid before us by our heavenly father Jehovah. At Acts 24:15 we read,"and I have hope toward God, which hope these men themselves entertain, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." So, try to keep that hope in mind and do all you can to be in line to see your love one again.

“ So sorry to hear about the loss of your loved one. May your family draw comfort from the hope extended to our loved ones we've lost in death, that of the resurrection (John 5:28,29)
