“ I am so very sorry that you lost your loved one. I know the pain a family feels to lose a son, because I too lost my son at a young age. The pain is especially hard on the mother of a child, because he"s a part of her and will always be her baby. My heart really goes out to you in your sorrow. What has helped me to cope over the years is knowing Jehovah"s purpose to end sickness and death from our lives. Because if his great love for us, he has also promised to restore life back to our loved ones. Daniel 12:2 tells us, "There will be many of those asleep in the ground of the dust who will wake up. Yes God will wake them up, and we will be able to hold our sons in our arms once again. Please rely on him for strength, and remember that one day you can see your son again.###imported-begin###R Johnaon###imported-end###

“ To the Walton Family, I am sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Terry was such a young person. It must be very difficult to deal with such a loss. Death, sickness and old age are truly enemies. God promises to vanquish them all as is mentioned at 1 Cor 15:26 "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." You have my deepest sympathy.###imported-begin###Douglas###imported-end###

“ To the Family: Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. John 5;28,29 says- "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." May you receive much comfort and strength as you reflect on this loving hope from the Bible.##imported-begin##S. Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. God’s original purpose was not for us to ever die. The thought of death is heartwrenching to us and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to death. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Just imagine our loved one coming back to life in the most beautiful earthly paradise you could ever imagine! Wouldn’t it be wonderful to greet them, tears of joy running down your faces and knowing that you will never lose them in death again. Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at (Rev. 21: 3-5) of a new earth where there will be no more death. These promises have brought comfort to millions. I wish the same for you.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
