

Terry G. Shaw

November 24, 1963 - August 30, 2015

Terry Glenn Shaw the son of Henry Shaw and the Late Fannie Shaw. He was born on November 24, 1963 in Dunn, North Carolina. He was called home to rest on August 30, 2015 after a long battle with cancer.

He received his education in the Baltimore City School System. He later began working for Eastern Facilities Maintenance for over three years and worked for over a year for a Steel Company.

Terry made numerous friends at the Healthcare for the Homeless. He enjoyed watching horror movies and playing oldies but goodies. He would play the same three songs all day and all right. He knew exactly where to drop the needle and it never skipped a beat. He always asked about old friends he grew up with. Friends that he hadn't seen in years.

Terry leaves to mourn his father, Henry Shaw; four sisters, Anita, Gloria (Cookie), Diane and Paulette Shaw; one aunt, Esther Stewart; five nieces, Shaneika, Stacy, LaKessia, Sherell and Shawna; three nephews, Timothy Jr., Steven and Kenny Jr.; seven great nieces and six great nephews that he loved very much and a host of cousins.
