“ Those we love must someday pass, beyond our present sight.. Must leave us and the world we know without their radiant light. But we know that like a candle Terry's lovely light will shine to brighten up another place....more divine. And in the realm of Heaven where she will shine so warm and bright. My loved one lives forevermore in God's eternal light.##imported-begin##Velma Thompson - Mother##imported-end##

“ To my mother. I remember days when you and me would love and fight each other. Now that your gone, I wish I had those days again to kiss, to hug , to laugh, to fuss, to cuss, and tell you how much I love and miss you. You will always be my heart. To a loving mother who understood me and loved me no matter what I did. To a mother who got on my nerves, trying to show me the right paths to take in my life. Ma, I appreciate everything you did for me and it is so very hard going on without you here. I love you with all my heart and I hope I get to see one day. “ A light has gone out. Never has one shined so brightly for so many. Never has there been a heart like hers. Terry cared for and protected so many. If only she had kept some for herself. I pray that at the last trumpet when we are caught up to meet Him in the air I will see her again face to face. A love so precious could only come from God. I will always thank Him for the love she gave, for the roads she kept me from and for the happiness she brought that I have never seemed to be able to quite find anywhere else . Tomorrow is not promised. Hold your loved ones close. Always in my prayers. Nora##imported-begin##Leonora Garner Rigby##imported-end##

“ He healeth the broken hearted...Psalm 147:3 Sometimes words just are not enough to take away our grief, so we rely on God for help and strength in our belief. May He uplift you greatly, take the sorrow that you bear, than comfort you with healing in the safety of His care... May God's love comfort you at this difficult time.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
