

Thaddeus Barber Jr

February 11, 1939 - August 28, 2022

Thaddeus (Sonny) Barber, Jr. was born on February 11, 1939 in Chester , SC to the late Thaddeus and Lillie (Mills) Barber. He departed life on Monday , August 29, 2022 in the comfort of his home with his loving wife by his side.

Sonny received his education in Baltimore City Maryland Pubic School System.

He enjoyed a loving relationship for 45 years with Addlyn (Chi Chi) Barber. Chi Chi served lovingly and unselfishly as Sonny's caregiver for the past 6-7 years of his illness. His medical team and those close to the family unanimously acknowledge her as an outstanding caregiver.

Sonny was employed as a long distance truck driver. He loved his job and worked for several well known companies before retiring in 2012. When driving across the United States, he enjoyed visiting the area casinos. As a young man he enjoyed playing pool. When he came home from work he relaxed by listening to jazz in the comfort of his man cave. His favorite song was "Waling In The Rain" by Orange Juice Jones. He also loved music by Marvin Gaye. His warm, quiet and generous demeanor will be missed. When he could, he never hesitated to help his family members.

Sonny leaves to cherish his memory: his loving wife Addlyn Barber, one daughter: Jacqueline Hill (Ronald); two step-daughters; Lisa and Robbyn Ward; siblings, Essie Johnson, Charles Barber (deceased) Theresa Cross (deceased) Altemius Barber (deceased) Jeanie Woods, Desiree Barber, Delores Tuck, Tyrone Barber and Phyllis Moore; two grandchildren; Keisha (Moo Moo) Taylor-Payton and Shakia Roberson, (Theodore Davis); great-grandchildren; Nakeemah, Ronald Hall, Angelo Barnes, Cashae Whitener, Chasity Whitener, Trania Jackson, Jakia Jackson, Duran Stukes, Nigeria Davis, and Nasim Davis; and a host of loving neices ,nephews, other relatives and friends.
