

Theartis Woodard

November 19, 1947 - December 29, 2010

MR. THEARTIS LEVON WOODARD, SR., was the son of the late Theodore Woodard and Madeline Robinson Hairston, both of Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

Theartis Levon Woodard a.k.a “Pop”, was born on November 19, 1947 in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. He was educated in the Public School System of North Carolina. In April 1968, he joined the United States Army. In February 1970, he was released on Honorable Discharge. He moved to Baltimore, Maryland where he met Deanna Armstrong. Theartis Woodard and Deanna Armstrong attended Carter Memorial Church of God in Christ, where they married, under the pasturage of the late Bishop Frank J. Ellis.

Theartis Levon Woodard, Sr. loved to watch his Westerns and to listen to his music and every football Sunday he watched The Ravens games just to see them lose.

He leaves to cherish the memory of his life: his three sons, Gerod Woodard Sr., Theartis Woodard Jr. and Melvin Armstrong, all of Baltimore, Maryland; one daughter-in-law, Pamela Woodard; three grandsons, Gerod Woodard Jr., Dartz Hatcher and Brandon Woodard; a loving friend, Lisa Hammond and a host of cousins, nephews, nieces and other relatives and friends.

“ I didn't know Mr. Woodard at all, but I played football with his son Theartis Jr. , at the University of South Carolina back in 1986. My name is Brian Chaney from Canton, Ohio. Theartis was one of my best friends at USC and if pops was anything like his kid , I'm sure he was an outstanding gentleman. Miss all yall Theartis, big simp, skeets, Platt, etc. Much love

“ I most remember Theartis for his kind and humble way. He and my brother, Leonard, who is now deceased were very good friends. Theartis was a very quiet and discerning man. A good way to be.
