

Thelma Rebecca Bloomfield

November 13, 1931 - April 7, 2024

Remembering Thelma

Mrs. Thelma Rebecca Bloomfield departed this life peacefully on Sunday night, April 7, 2024 with the love of her family surrounding her.

Thelma was born in Rocky Mount, North Carolina to Mary and Augustus Hines. She often spoke fondly of her home and her family. She accepted Christ at an early age in Rocky Mount and attended high school there until moving to Richmond, Virginia in 1957. There she met the love of her life, Jerral H. Bloomfield and was baptized at Crusade for Christ Church.

She was a devoted wife, mother of two daughters, Carolyn and Tonette, grandmother, great grandmother, great-great grandmother and friend to many. Thelma and Jerral were entrepreneurs in every sense of the word. They operated several businesses throughout their lifetime. One of their businesses was Bloomfield's Market. There she spent most of her working life. The neighbors and customers loved her compassion, wit and zest for life. Bloomfield's Market thrived under her watch.

Thelma was warm and quiet but firm in her convictions. There was one phrase she often used and people who knew her will always remember, "Well bless your heart." She had the voice of an angel and in her earlier years, Thelma was a singer with the renowned gospel artist Shirley Caesar.

Whether she was telling captivating or sometimes funny stories of her childhood and youth or offering sound advice, Thelma had a way of making everyone feel special, valued and heard. She led a simple life finding joy in the little things and cherishing the moments spent with loved ones.

Thelma Rebecca Bloomfield leaves behind a legacy of love, resilience, strength and treasured memories that will be carried on in the hearts of those left behind.

Though she is no longer physically present, her impact on our lives will forever remain. May she rest in eternal peace.
