

Thelma Odell Cottemond

May 23, 1949 - February 28, 2011

Thelma Odell Cottemond was born May 23, 1949 in Sussex County, Virginia to the late Charlie Addison Cottemond and H. Jeannette Hines Cottemond.

Odell went to New Hope School and attended Southside Training School for the Disabled in Petersburg, Virginia. She worked for many years at Hermitage Enterprises.

Odell accepted Christ as her Savior and Lord early in life at New Hope Baptist Church, Waverly, Virginia. She later moved to Richmond and became a member of Metropolitan African American Baptist Church where she served on the 4th Sunday Hospitality Team and was an active member of the Ida T. Gayles Covenant Discipleship Group.

Odell was a fun loving, free spirited person who loved to dance and go to work. She will always be remembered for her high pitch voice and her sugar water kool-aid. A ray of sunshine has gone but she shines brightly in our hearts and in heaven.

She leaves to cherish her memory three sisters: Jeannette Perry and Lois Davis of Henrico, Virginia and Elmira Young (Ernest) of Stony Creek, Virginia; one brother, Charles Cottemond (Sandra) of Augusta, GA; one aunt Yvonne Hines of Petersburg, Virginia; 13 nieces and nephews and 26 great nieces and nephews and a host of cousins and friends.
