

Thelma Daye

May 3, 1932 - November 6, 2010

THELMA DAYE, daughter of the late Judge Wheeler and Sally Bailey, was born on May 3, 1932 in Smithfield, Virginia. After a short illness, God called her home on November 6, 2010.

Thelma received her education at the Bridges School, a small schoolhouse in Smithfield, Virginia.

As a young child, Thelma began working with her grandmother and other family members, harvesting cotton, peanuts and other crops to her sustenance the family.

In 1948, she moved to Baltimore, Maryland and married the late Emmett L. Scott. From this union four children were born, Emmett, James, Patricia and Fontaine. Thelma later married her soulmate, Linwood Daye. From this union three children were born, Rosalyn, Linwood and Michael.

Having a spiritual upbringing, she continued to praise and thank God for the abundance in her life. She was a member of Provident Baptist Church and later became a member of Whitestone Baptist Church.

Thelma worked as a Nursing Assistant at Keswick Nursing Center and later began working for the University of Maryland Hospital where she retired after twenty-five years of service.

Thelma had several interests. She was certified in industrial sewing, tailoring and ceramics. She was a member of different social clubs including the Eastern Star. Her favorite pastime was fishing. Over the summer, Thelma and Linwood would catch enough fish to last throughout the winter months. You always knew you could count on a Friday fish dinner.

Thelma touched the lives of many with her kindness and honesty. She will be missed by everyone that knew her.

She leaves to mourn: her husband, Linwood; son, Emmett, James, Linwood and Michael; Daughters, Patricia, Fontaine and Rosalyn; brothers, Ernest Lee, Kevin and Matthew; sisters Laura, Rudy, Ernestine and Louise; son-in-law, Byron and Charles; Daughter-in-law, Milton and Kenneth; ten grandchildren, Arnold, Derrick, Denise, Heather, Donna, Danyel, Byron, Michelle, Bria and Charles; five great-grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I know I didn't spend time as I should with Aunt Thelma but my greatest memories are when her and Uncle Linwood would come to NC. All of the Aunties and Grandma Lillie would be together. And I would think of how GREAT everyone looked. Aunt Thelma will always be a "Fly Lady" with Style and Southern Elegance.

Pete's Daughter - November 13, 2010 at 10:51 AM

“ We are so sorry for the lost of Aunt Thelma. Sorry that we couldnt make it up there but you all are in our prayers along with Uncle Lindwood. We know what you are going through because not too long ago God called mama home. He only takes the best. She will be missed dearly. We love you all. With deepest sympathy, love Joyce "Pete", Bianca and the rest of the Corbett Family.

Joyce Corbett Roberson - November 12, 2010 at 08:53 PM

“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. Despite this difficult time, you can find comfort in the Christian hope of the resurrection. Jesus promises at John 5:28, 29: "Do not marvel at this but the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear my voice and come out." Yes we have the solid hope of embracing our loved ones who have passed away again.

A Robinson - November 11, 2010 at 04:17 AM

“ Mrs. Daye was a wonderful, loving woman. She will be missed very much by many.

Donna Wilkes - November 10, 2010 at 10:44 AM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
