

Thelma Dean Hunter

November 8, 1948 - March 19, 2004

Thelma D. Hunter, daughter of the late Roosevelt and Ella Richardson, was born on November 8, 1948 in Philadelphia, PA. She departed this life on March 19, 2004 after a lengthy illness. She received her education in Baltimore, Maryland. She attended Dunbar High School in the 1960's, but left to marry the late Braxton Hunter. Mrs. Hunter had many jobs, nursing assistant, cooking at Suburban House Restaurant, etc., but her most rewarding and fulfilling job was raising her children and her grandchildren. Mrs. Hunter had seven children. Curtis and Braxtene preceded her in death as infants. After giving birth to two other daughters, she met Mr. Roqie Robinson and out of this union produced twin daughters and a son. Thelma was friendly, caring and loved people from all walks of life; she was talkative and would talk for hours with anyone she met. She loved to crochet, do puzzles, read her bible, writes and talks on the phone. She is survived by four daughters, April T. Williams, Thelma V. Hunter, Leonette Wesby and Lavette Robinson; one son, Eric. L. Robinson; two sons-in-law, Wayne and Tracy; daughter-in-law, Heather; ten grandchildren, Lakiesha, Anthony, Clinton, Eric, Gerald, Brittany, Troy, Shanette, Eric II and Shamia; three great grandchildren, Erica, Dwayne and Lymira; one sister, Mrs., Dorethea Blackwell; two brothers, Theodore R. Richardson and Robert T. Richardson; one brother-in-law, Alex Blackwell; one sister-in-law, Elva Richardson, a host of nieces, nephews, god-children, friends and other relatives.
