

Thelma L. Dorsey

April 2, 1934 - June 22, 2012

Thelma L. Dorsey (Williams), daughter of Henry and Dorothy, was born on April 2, 1934 in Charles County, Maryland. She departed this life on June 22, 2012 after a lengthy illness.

Thelma was educated at St. Pius Catholic School and Frederick Douglass High School where she graduated in 1953. Thelma had a strong desire to care for people, so upon completion of her education, she became a nursing assistant; and later had the opportunity to work as a Claim Processor for the Social Security Administration where she retired in 1998.

She married her late husband, James A. Dorsey in 1954, and from this union, six children were born. The couple was married for fifty-six years.

Thelma was devoted to her family and loved to entertain and would host the family dinners. She loved to read mystery novels and watch the history channel. She loved to travel, especially to Las Vegas and Atlantic City to try her luck at the casinos. Thelma loved all kinds of music and would sometimes dance and sing whenever she felt the urge. Thelma was the most kind and selfless person who will be so missed by her family and friends.

She was preceded in death by: husband, James A. Dorsey; son, Mark; sister, Evelyn Mance; brother, Wilmer Williams; and sister-in-law, Anne Vines.

She leaves to mourn: son, Kirk; four daughters, Rosalind, Terry, Leslie and Robin; son-in-law, Terry Torain; four grandchildren, Tracey, Bryan, Alexander and Michael; great-grandson, Ronald; and a host of other relatives and friends.

As you know my name is Linnel Dixon and I am so sorry for your loss...That's why Revelation 21:4 is such a comfort to me...it says that Jehovah will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death, mourning, outcry or pain will be a thing of the past...so we can be confident that he will fulfill this commission like he always does. Please e-mail me if you have further questions...

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

I would like to convey my sympathy to you in the loss of your loved one. I didn't know Ms Dorsey personally but I do understand the pain of losing one so dear to you. I found comfort in reading the Bible, as I'm sure you do too, so I just wanted to share with you one of my favorite accounts found in the book of John in John 11:14,14-44, here it shares with us a wonderful experience of a man named Lazarus. We can only imagine the tears of joy when every one heard Jesus call out in a loud voice, "Lazarus, come forth!" and before the very eyes of everyone gathered there he walked toward them from his memorial tomb. We too will experience such joy when John 5:25-28 is fulfilled. Please pass on my condolences to those who knew and loved Ms Dorsey.
