

Thelma W. Floyd

November 1, 1919 - February 25, 2003

Thelma Watts Floyd, daughter of the late Joseph and Geneva Watts and wife of the late James Walter Floyd (a union from which came forth four children, Ruth Barney, James Floyd, Jr., Joyce Wheatley and Marlene Payne), was born on November 1, 1919, in Baltimore, Maryland. She attended the public schools of Baltimore City. She graduated from Carver Vocational High School and received a degree in engineering. Some of her places of employment were Glenn L. Martin, Comfort Spring Factory, Baltimore Public School System, and the City-Wide Bus Company. Thelma loved sports. In her younger years she was known as the best roller skater in town. Also, she loved baseball. Thelma loved people. She had a special love for children. Also, she demonstrated what it means to be a true kingdom worker in the body of Christ in her neighborhood. She gave her love and help to anyone in the neighborhood. It made no difference as to what walk of life they came from. Thelma was a member of First Apostolic Faith Church since her birth. She accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age. She was baptized in Jesus name and received the Holy Ghost under the leadership of Bishop J. M. Turpin and remained a member under the leadership of Bishop Winfield Showell, Sr. and Bishop Cornelius Showell. Thelma was a member of the Usher Board for over fifty years. During her tenure she served as president. She was a faithful servant until she passed from life to life everlasting. Thelma departed this life on February 25, 2003, to be with her Lord and savior Jesus Christ. She will be greatly missed. She leaves to celebrate her loving memory: her loving children, Ruth Barney, James Floyd, Joyce Wheatley and Marlene Payne; two brothers, Vernon Watts and Alan Watts; one sister, Anita Stevenson; two sisters-in-law, Mary Watts and Irma Watts; nineteen grandchildren, thirty-three great grandchildren, fifteen great-great grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Thelma W. Floyd

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Thelma W. Floyd

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ My condolences at the passing of your loved one.##imported-begin##Crissa Holder Smith##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I met "mother" at Hair Visions Salon along with her daughter Marlene and grand-daughter Meagan. Mother always had a pep in her step and smile on her face. I would come in with my morning paper and wouldn't read it until mother had the chance to read it first. She would ask me to fix her some coffee or cocoa and I would say "sure mother" We all loved and adored Mother for she was like a mother to us all. When I last saw her, we were sitting in the hair dresser laughing and talking about the goodness of God. I will truly miss her. But I take comfort in knowing that even though she is absent from us, she is present with the Lord. It's my own selfishness that wants her here with me. But God said, it's time, time to receive your reward. I have my reward, knowing that the Lord placed mother in my life. I leave you with this passage...If I walk in the pathway of duty..If I work till the close of day..I shall see the great King in His beauty...When I've gone my last mile of the day...grieve how you must, but know that Mother is seeing the beauty of the King...and He is saying..well done, my good and faithful servant.##imported-begin##Valerie Williams##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM