

Thelma R. Freeman

May 10, 1926 - June 28, 2012

THELMA REGINA FREEMAN, affectionately known to family and friends as "Jean," was born on May 10, 1926 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was the ninth child of the late William and Fannie Johnson of Richmond, Virginia. She departed this life on Thursday, June 28, 2012 in Baltimore, Maryland

She received her early education in the Baltimore City Public School System and attended Paul Laurence Dunbar High School.

Jean accepted Christ at an early age and had a personal relationship with God throughout her life.

Jean worked many years with the Baltimore City Public School System. She ended her career by retiring from the school system in 1976 due to a sudden illness.

In spite of her physical challenges, Jean always demonstrated the will to overcome with courage, independence and a smile.

She was married on September 19, 1945 to the late Clarence Freeman, Sr. and out of this union three children were born: Deborah Freeman, Clarence Freeman, Jr and Michael Freeman (deceased). Years later, Thelma met the late Edgar Eugene Sanders. Through this union Edgar (Cisco) Sanders was born.

Her favorite pastimes were Bingo, traveling, playing cards and entertaining her friends and family.

Jean enjoyed traveling to Atlantic City with the senior group of St. Pius Catholic Church “Jean” was known for her great finesse and determination. She always remained jovial and high-spirited, causing people to anticipate and thoroughly enjoy her presence everywhere she went.

Thelma Freeman leaves to honor her legacy; her Deborah Freeman; sons, Clarence Freeman, Jr. and Edgar (Cisco) Sanders; daughter-in-law, Lisa Sanders; devoted brother and sister-in-law, George Johnson and Mary Johnson; eleven grandchildren and twenty -one great-grandchildren; nieces, nephews, cousins, a host of other relatives and friends.
