

Thelma Gray

September 11, 1914 - March 6, 2002

Thelma Gray, daughter of the late George Gray and Nellie Johnson, was born on September 11, 1914 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on March 6, 2002 after a lengthy illness. Thelma attended the Baltimore City Public Schools. She worked for Gatch Wire Goods Company for fifteen years. She devoted her life to Christ at an early age at Whitestone Baptist Church and continued to be a faithful member for over thirty years. She was also a member of the Flower Circle. She was very kind and faithful to everyone who knew her. She cared so much for her family and she wanted the best for everyone. Her favorite thing to do was to sing gospel songs. She was always a true friend and will be sincerely missed by everyone. Two daughters, Dorothy White and Marilyn Harris survive her. She was also the mother of the late Nellie Outlaw and Delores Jones; two sons-in-law, Ulysses White and Harold McCaskill; fourteen grandchildren, thirty great grandchildren, twenty great-great grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Marilyn, I know your grief is hard to bear, but God IS carrying you through. I know that you miss your mother, but God WILL be a mother to you, wipe away your tears, put joy in your heart where sorrow is now. Take one day at a time and trust God to bring you through the storms of life. God knows just how you can bear!##imported-begin##Pernell Cofield##imported-end##
