

Thelma Hood

November 20, 1921 - February 12, 2006

On Sunday, February 12, 2006, God called His daughter, THELMA HOOD home. She died after a sudden illness. Thelma, daughter of the late Joseph and Flora Stone, was raised in a Christian home. She was educated in the public school system of North Carolina. Thelma went to work at Reynold's Tobacco Company, at an early age. She held many jobs during her life, and her most recent job was at Bello Machre, where she diligently worked for fourteen years. She was a people person. Thelma was united in marriage on February 11, 1950 to the late Homer Lee Hood, and from this union one daughter, Debbie was born. Thelma was a supportive and devoted wife, as well as a supportive and devoted mother. In November 1999, God called Homer home. Thelma was a different person after his death.

“ To the family and friends of Thelma my deepest condolences. May you cherish her memory. The Bible has words of comfort. At 1 Corinthians 15:26 states, "As the last enemy death is to be brought to nothing." God has promised to do away with death and the pain that it causes. May these words be of comfort to the family.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the family of Mrs. Hood, may you have peace and comfort from our loving heavenly father. Death was never a part of God's purpose for mankind, so very soon he intends to end all sickness and death forever. No more will graveyards bring sadness to our herts when we pass them by because those in the dust of the ground will be raised up in the coming ressurection. Please read these verses at Rev.21:3,4, John 5"28,29, and Isaiah 25"8, May your cherished memories, as well as the comfort from the bible bring you hope of being with your loved one again.##imported-begin##R Johnaonr##imported-end##

“ I wish to express my deepest sympathy to the family of Mrs. Hood. No doubt your heart is heavy with grief. May you find the strength and courage to cope with this tragedy. One great source of strength can be found in God's inspired word the bible. A scripture of great comfort is Isaiah 25:8,9 and 1 Corinthians 15:55.##imported-begin##K. Smith##imported-end##

“ God intended for all humans to live forever in a paradise earth; It's not God's purpose for us to live such a short time on this polluted earth. That's why there's a hope laid out for us at Acts 24:15. There is going to be a resurrection of our dear loved ones. Conditions of the earth will soon be better (Rev. 21:4). May you be comforted.##imported-begin##Kendra A##imported-end##
