

Thelma Inez Lawson

January 31, 1939 - March 22, 2023

Thelma Inez Lawson, who was affectionately known to family and close friends as “Diddie”, was born on January 31, 1939 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Henry Lawson and Thelma (Henderson) Lawson. After a long illness, she transitioned from this life to her eternal home on March 22, 2023.

Thelma was a lifelong resident of Baltimore and received her education in Baltimore City Public Schools. She worked for many years as a preschool Teacher’s aide at Grace and St. Peter’s School. She later retired from Goodwill Industries where she worked in custodial services at the Maryland State Office Building.

Thelma will be remembered for her strength of character and generous spirit. She loved spending time with her family and friends. She also loved to shop and had a good eye for bargains. Thelma had a great sense of humor and was an avid collector of dolls. She was an admitted "homebody" who loved watching Judge Judy, Lifetime movies, and her "stories". She liked listening to the Motown Greats, especially Michael Jackson who always got her moving.

Her best friends were her sisters. She was a loving mother, doting grandmother and great-grandmother, and cherished family near and far.

Thelma is survived by her two daughters: Rhonda Robertson and Keesha Ha

(Rowan); three grandchildren: Tiara Moorman (Earl), Brent Robertson (Delissa) and Broderick "Brody" Patterson; three great grandchildren: Jace Moorman, Niles Moorman and Ren Robertson; two sisters: Erma McDuffie and Rosalie Jackson; three nieces: Robinette Smith, Rosalind Jackson and Vanessa Gordon; one nephew: Kenneth Jackson (two nephews Garcia Smith and Henry Marvin Jackson preceded her in death); and a host of relatives, special friends and any others who loved and adored her.
