

Thelma A. Martin

August 6, 1927 - August 7, 2014

Thelma anne marTin, daughter of the late Champlain and Annie Travis, was born on August 6, 1927, in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on August 7, 2014. She was the youngest of four children, two of whom predeceased her. She received her education at Dunbar High School in Baltimore, Maryland and graduated from Dunbar in 1945. After graduation, she was employed at Johns Hopkins Hospital where she worked in various positions until her retirement.

She was married to James W. Martin, Sr. for 37 years. They had three children during their marriage.

Thelma enjoyed life. She was an avid reader, she loved to cook and she enjoyed cooking her specialty dishes. She also had a love of family. She especially enjoyed caring for her grandchildren whenever the opportunity arose. She moved to Shrewsbury, Pennsylvania to provide after school care for her grandchildren when her daughter moved there. She always returned to Baltimore for family gatherings. She and her sister, Odell, made sure that their families remained close.

Thelma was a devout catholic and was a long-time member of St. Francis Xavier in Baltimore.

She leaves to mourn: three children, Faiza (Carolyn) Hammett, James W. Martin, Jr. and Linda Ann Green; two sons-in-law, George Green and Moses Hammett; sister, Odell Gibbs, twelve grandchildren, twenty great-grandchildren; cousin, Charlotte Watkins; nephews, nieces, a host of other relatives and friends.

“ *Dear Linda and family,
I just found out about this and I'm so sorry. I lost my mother in April and I know the pain. Let me know if there is anything I can do.

Sister Maidah and Family

Maidah Amatullah - August 13, 2014 at 08:18 PM

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 5yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
