

Thelma Mayo

June 25, 1938 - January 5, 2002

Thelma Etherial Mayo, the second daughter of the late Herman and Bertha Walker, was born on June 25, 1938 in Lawrenceville, Virginia. She was called from labor to eternal rest on Tuesday, January 1, 2002. Thelma was raised and educated in Baltimore City,. She graduated from Douglas High School in June, 1956. She later attended Coppin State College where she received her B.S. degree in History and Graduate Equivalency. Thelma taught in the Baltimore Public School system for 17 1/2 years. She taught History for Grades 6-12 and Special Education from Grades 1-12. Thelma was baptized at a young age at Enon Baptist Church. She sung on the Gospel choir there. In March, 1984, she joined Rising Sun First Baptist Church. There, she continued to work in the church and taught Sunday School. Thelma also was a faithful member of the Willing Workers. Later, she joined the Collective Christian Ministries. Again, she continued to spread the love of Jesus Christ, the son of our living God, to all she met. Thelma's family and friends knew her as a sensitive, caring, and loving person. One of her greatest joys was teaching children and she continued to make an impact on the educational community by tutoring children at her home. Also, she enjoyed cooking and was known for her potato salad. Sister Mayo is survived by her husband, Samuel Thomas Mayo; two step-children, Anthony and Juanita Mayo; six grandchildren and one great grandchild; her step-mother, Maydenne Walker; three sisters, Gertrude Wiggins, Shirley Pollard and Angela McNeely; a step-sister, Delores Drummond; a brother, Willie Herman Walker; a step-brother, Roosevelt Drummond; and a host of other relatives and dear friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Thelma Mayo

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Mr. Sam sorry about Sis. Mayo. I'm sure she is happy where she is. May God bless you and your family. The Linton & Roberson family##imported-begin##Nena Roberson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM