

Thelma T. Morrison

June 9, 1925 - December 19, 2015

THELMA MORRISON, lovingly called mama or Mother by all, was born Thelma Thompson in Moncks Corner, South Carolina on June 9, 1925 to Laura Haynes and Luscious Thompson, Thelma moved to New York where she met and married Clyde Morrison.

Thelma was a homemaker who loved family gatherings and loved cooking large meals for anyone who would eat. She was a dedicated mother and grandmother and was always willing to lend assistance to anyone who needed it. She loved to sew and her favorite color was red. Her favorite pastime was telling her grandson Rashaan she was going to whip him with her cane and telling Tracey she is just like her mother.

Thelma is survived by; her daughter Sandra Monroe; grandchildren, Tracey C. Monroe, Rashaan Monroe, Clyde Gerbrick, Ashley Sprague, and Amber Grant; great-grandchildren, Jaleesa C. Rich, Stephanie L. Rich, Morganne R. Jones and Eshe N. Monroe; a great-granddaughter, Arianna R. Utsey and great-grandson, John Marcelle Davis, Jr.

Thelma was preceded in death by: her parents, Laura Haynes and Luscious Thompson; her husband, Clyde Morrison, Sr. and son Clyde Morrison, Jr.

Thelma was a devoted member of the Methodist Church and at an early age accepted Jesus Christ as her Savior.

She was called to be with the Lord on December 19, 2015. She is loved and will be missed by all who knew her.
